A&M University

Kendall has 14 years experience with law firm recruiting and throughout this experience has initiated many recruiting initiatives. Much of her professional experience has focused on developing recruiting tools to successfully hire and retain lawyers.

At Andrews Kurth, Kendall is responsible for all firm-wide recruiting including recruiting at law schools and lateral hiring efforts. She coordinates and oversees all lateral hiring firm-wide and has developed and implemented a Lateral Hire Integration Program which eases the transition for the lateral hires.

In addition to being a member of the Practice Expansion Committee, Kendall coordinates firm-wide vertical recruiting programs every Fall and Spring.
