Luciane is an Associate in the Business Transactions section of the Washington, DC office representing domestic and international clients. Her practice focuses on a variety of transactional and general corporate matters.

Her transactional experience includes advising multilateral financial institutions in structured finance transactions in the United States, Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as drafting all related documentation in English, Spanish or Portuguese, including loan agreements, security agreements, consortium agreements and promissory notes. Luciane also advises Chinese clients in their acquisition of oil and gas assets in Latin America, assisting in the preparation of final due diligence and risk assessment reports.

Luciane also advises clients in general corporate matters including the incorporation, formation and dissolution of entities throughout the United States, as well as the reinstatement and redomiciliation of international entities.

Prior to pursuing her U.S. LLM, Luciane has worked as a sole practitioner in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, representing clients in various commercial litigation matters.
