Michael practices complex commercial litigation and public law. He represents clients in all phases of litigation, from contested cases before administrative agencies, to state and federal district courts, courts of appeals, and the Texas Supreme Court. In addition, Michael advises clients on a wide range of regulatory, statutory, and constitutional matters.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Defended major electrical equipment supplier in a multimillion dollar dispute over the decommissioning of several power plants. Uncovered Plaintiffs' fabrication of evidence and drafted successful Motion for Death Penalty Sanctions. Trial court dismissed the suit and awarded client over $625,000 in monetary sanctions.
- Represented coalition of large industrial companies in multiple appeals at the Texas Supreme Court related to the deregulation of the electricity industry.
- Obtained favorable settlement for a national pharmaceutical company in a Medicaid fraud investigation brought by the Texas Attorney General.
- Briefing attorney in successful defense on appeal, in which court articulated new doctrine of personal jurisdiction, of a trial court's dismissal of corporate executive client from suit.
- Represents a national manufacturing company in multi-forum litigation in South Texas involving numerous tort claims.
- Represents a national consumer finance company in state court litigation in South Texas involving lending claims.
- Represents a private equity-backed oil and gas operating company in a contract dispute.
