

Straight Talk Appearances

"Legal Issues in the Restitution of Art Looted by the Nazis or Otherwise Displaced During Wartime"

February 2, 2009
Baltimore, Maryland

Tom Kline, a partner in our DC office, was a guest speaker before a class of Johns Hopkins University's Master of Arts in Museums Studies students on February 2 at Johns Hopkins University.

His presentation was entitled, "Legal Issues in the Restitution of Art Looted by the Nazis or Otherwise Displaced During Wartime."