June 21, 2005

2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time)

Please join us in this two-hour program which will assist you in understanding the new law and what it means to you and your customers.

Attend this seminar to find out what this means to you and your customers. After Years in the making, the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005, has finally been passed. Most of the law's provisions go into effect in October 2005. The main focus of this legislation is to prevent consumer debtors from abusing the bankruptcy process, while protecting those who legitimately need the financial assistance that bankruptcy provides. Consumer bankruptcy law will significantly change.

Audience:

Lenders, compliance officers, auditors and bank counsel will all benefit from this program.
