

Straight Talk Appearances

2010 Trends in Annual Disclosures

January 13, 2010

Andrews Kurth - Houston Office As the SEC Staff requires more companies to amend their filings, public companies are facing increased pressure to enhance their annual SEC disclosures. A panel of Andrews Kurth corporate partners, including Melinda Brunger, David Buck, Jeff Dodd, Bob Jewell and Mike O'Leary will provide seasoned advice about annual disclosure trends.

The panel will focus on new proxy rules, Board disclosure requirements and financial reporting priorities for public companies, as well as recent SEC guidance.

- New SEC rules on executive compensation and CD&A
- Trends in risk factors and forward-looking statements
- MD&A guidance: fundamentals and changing focus
- Preparing for proxy access
- Compliance with Regulation FD and Regulation G in light of SEC guidance