Straight Talk in the Middle East

As part of our international multinational practice perspective, and prominent place in the energy industry, Andrews Kurth provides counsel that frequently involves the economies of Middle Eastern nations. Areas of our representation in the region include:

- Corporate and transactional
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Securities offerings
- Structured finance
- Real estate development
- Infrastructure development

Andrews Kurth clients gain worldwide benefits from our active International practice group and global prominence in finance and project developments.

To translate straight talk effectively in the Middle East, Andrews Kurth leverages its relationships with leading local law firms and uses its skills in cultural awareness and long-held traditions of respectful business practices in the commercial marketplace.

We actively work with scholars to explore and respect the nuances of Islamic law and to build common ground amongst all parties in transactions. We ably guide clients in complete compliance with Shari'ah while achieving their optimal results.
