

International

Global Straight Talk

Andrews Kurth's straight talk easily translates into the modern borderless business economy. For decades, lawyers in our cross-border practices have played key roles in counseling in:

- Art & Cultural Property
- Financial / Capital Markets
- Global Asset Securitization Market
- Global Infrastructure
- Intellectual Property
- International Regulatory / Privatization
- International Trade Disputes
- Litigation / Arbitration / ADR
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Private Equity and Investment Funds
- Project Finance
- Structured Finance
- Tax

Andrews Kurth's multinational perspective extends beyond helping U.S. companies cope with business rules and requirements in other countries. We also use our proven skills as business legal counselors to creating new opportunities for foreign clients in their home or other countries.

Known for innovation in international finance and regulatory guidance, we can claim a remarkable succession of transactional and statutory "firsts." Andrews Kurth's straight talk works all over the world and our regions of influence include:

- Central Asia/China
- Latin America and the Caribbean
- Middle East
- South Asia/India

The firm's Beijing office provides logistic and personnel support for the firm's work for China-based clients and other clients with business in China. We maintain offices in the global financial capitals of New York and London.

Our Texas and Washington, DC offices provide a solid base and foundation for our Latin America, foreign regulation and trade, and worldwide intellectual property enforcement practices.

The World Law Group

Andrews Kurth is an active member of the World Law Group, an invitation-only, global network of leading law firms with offices in 60 countries. Over more than 20 years, World Law Group firms have built deep personal and professional bonds, attending twice-a-year conferences and working closely together on hundreds of substantial projects. Through the World Law Group network, we provide clients seamless access to first-tier legal assistance, unsurpassed local knowledge and global sophistication around the world.