

Headline News

Andrews Kurth Expands Corporate/Securities Practice

January 4, 2007

HOUSTON – Andrews Kurth announced today that Lance Schuler has joined the firm as a Partner in the Corporate / Securities Practice.

“We are very pleased that Lance has joined Andrews Kurth,” said Managing Partner Howard Ayers. “His extensive corporate experience will serve our clients well.”

Lance has 20 years of legal experience. The last 12 of these were spent in various legal capacities with Enron Corp. where he was most recently a Managing Director and the General Counsel, Corporate Development.

Schuler received his J.D. in 1986 from The University of Texas School of Law, graduating with honors. He graduated with a B.B.A. in finance and management from The University of Texas in 1983, with honors.

“I am very excited about joining Andrews Kurth,” Schuler said. “I am especially proud to be joining the firm’s nationally recognized Corporate / Securities practice and I look forward to contributing to the firm’s continued success.”

For more than a century, Andrews Kurth LLP has built its practice on the belief that “straight talk is good business.” Real answers, clear vision and mutual respect define the firm’s relationships with clients, colleagues, communities and employees. With more than 400 lawyers and offices in Austin, Beijing, Dallas, Houston, London, Los Angeles, New York, The Woodlands and Washington, DC, Andrews Kurth represents a wide array of clients in all areas of business law. For more information about Andrews Kurth, please visit andrewskurth.com.