Andrews & Kurth Adds Litigation Partner to Houston Office

February 7, 2003

HOUSTON -- Andrews & Kurth announces today the addition of J. Wiley George as partner in the litigation section of the firm's Houston office. "Adding an attorney of Wiley's experience is a great addition to our litigation practice," said managing partner Howard Ayers. "His knowledge and handling of complex legal matters will further enhance our firm's ability to service the needs of our clients."

Through the years Mr. George has resolved through trial, arbitration, motion practice and settlement a wide variety of complex commercial disputes for corporate clients. Mr. George received his B.B.A. with honors from Baylor University in 1983 and his J.D., cum laude from Baylor University School of Law in 1986.

Andrews & Kurth L.L.P., founded in 1902, is based in Houston, has 375 lawyers and offices in Austin, Dallas, The Woodlands, Texas, Los Angeles, London, New York and Washington D.C. The firm's practice areas include appellate, bankruptcy, business transactions, energy, environmental, corporate and securities, labor and employment, litigation, intellectual property, public law, project finance, real estate, structured finance, asset securitization, technology and tax law for U.S. and international clients.
