Nationally Recognized Tax Lawyer Gregg Jones Moves Practice to Andrews Kurth

October 8, 2007

Houston, Texas

HOUSTON – Andrews Kurth is pleased to announce that Gregg H. Jones has joined the firm's Houston office as a Partner in the Public Law section.

Jones is a nationally recognized tax lawyer in the area of public finance. His reputation, experience level and specific areas of focus will further enhance and complement the existing capabilities of the firm's Public Finance practice.

"We are delighted to welcome Gregg to our firm," said Bob Jewell, Andrews Kurth Managing Partner. "His experience will be invaluable to our clients and the lawyers with whom he will practice."

Jones has been named to The Best Lawyers in America and recognized as a "Texas Super Lawyer" by Texas Monthly magazine. He is a frequent lecturer on the tax and arbitrage analysis of municipal obligations. He is a past Chairman of the Tax-Exempt Finance Committee of the State Bar of Texas Tax Section and has sat on the Steering Committee of the Bond Attorneys' Workshop, among other professional affiliations.

"I am very excited to be joining Andrews Kurth at this time," says Jones. "I look forward to contributing to the long-term growth of the Public Finance practice group."

Jones earned his JD from the University of Michigan Law School in 1976. He received an AB, magna cum laude, from Duke University in 1973.

For more than a century, Andrews Kurth LLP has built its practice on the belief that "straight talk is good business." Real answers, clear vision and mutual respect define the firm's relationships with clients, colleagues, communities and employees. With more than 400 lawyers and offices in Austin, Beijing, Dallas, Houston, London, Los Angeles, New York, The Woodlands and Washington, DC, Andrews Kurth represents a wide array of clients in all areas of business law.
