

Headline News

Experienced Litigator Brad Foster Joins Andrews Kurth

July 16, 2008

Dallas, Texas

Dallas - Andrews Kurth LLP is pleased to announce that Bradley W. Foster has joined the firm's Dallas office as a Partner in the Litigation section. Foster will concentrate his practice on securities litigation and Corporate Compliance, Investigations and Defense (CCID).

Foster has extensive experience representing clients in securities litigation and other complex business disputes. His experience includes securities class actions, M&A litigation, securities and commodities arbitration, SEC investigations, NYSE and NASD investigations, commercial arbitration, and general business litigation. He is also a Certified Public Accountant.

"We are very pleased Brad is joining our firm," said Mark Solomon, Dallas office Managing Partner. "His securities litigation experience will benefit both the firm and our clients."

Foster earned his J.D. in 1990 from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, where he was Valedictorian, an editor of the law review, and a member of the Order of the Coif. He received his B.A. from Baylor University in 1987, where he was a National Merit Scholar and a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

"I am pleased to be joining Andrews Kurth," said Foster. "I look forward to working with the outstanding attorneys in the Firm's Litigation and CCID practice groups."

For more than a century, Andrews Kurth has built its practice on the belief that "straight talk is good business." Real answers, clear vision and mutual respect define the firm's relationships with clients, colleagues, communities and employees. With more than 400 lawyers and offices in Austin, Beijing, Dallas, Houston, London, Los Angeles, New York, The Woodlands and Washington, DC, Andrews Kurth represents a wide array of clients in all areas of business law. For more information about Andrews Kurth, please visit andrewskurth.com.