Andrews Kurth Holds Carnival for Patients at Texas Children's Hospital

September 9, 2008

Houston, Texas

HOUSTON – On July 26, the summer associates from Andrews Kurth held a carnival for the patients and families at Texas Children's Hospital.

The firm coordinated several activities for the children. Face painting, jewelry making, putt-putt golf and a basketball shoot out were some of the children's favorites. In addition to the carnival, Andrews Kurth went floor to floor visiting and delivering stuffed animals to the children in the hospital who were unable to attend. At the end of the event, a donation of toys was made to the Child Development Department at the hospital.

"This was a meaningful day for not only the patients, but also for our lawyers and summer associates," said Mike Shaw, Recruiting Co-hiring Partner at Andrews Kurth. "It was important to see how just one day could bring joy to so many lives." For more than a century, Andrews Kurth has built its practice on the belief that "straight talk is good business." Real answers, clear vision and mutual respect define the firm's relationships with clients, colleagues, communities and employees.
