Washington, DC Managing Partner Shemin Proctor elected to Executive Committee

(HOUSTON) - Andrews Kurth LLP announced today the election of a new member to the firm's Executive Committee. Shemin Proctor, Washington, DC Managing Partner, will begin serving on the Executive Committee immediately.

The Executive Committee was established to work in concert with the firm's Managing Partner Bob Jewell and serves at the direction of or in the absence of the Managing Partner.

"Shemin is a great lawyer who exhibits sound judgment and outstanding leadership," said Mr. Jewell. "We are extremely fortunate to have a lawyer of Shemin's talents take on such an important role."

"I am delighted to be elected to the Executive Committee, for so many reasons, not the least of which is that I started my legal career at Andrews Kurth" said Ms. Proctor. "I look forward to working with my colleagues in my new role."

In addition to serving as the Washington, DC Managing Partner, Ms. Proctor focuses her practice on energy regulations and transactions. She counsels clients regarding the applicability of federal laws to the provision of natural gas and oil services, as well as the operation and management of energy assets. She has represented major energy companies, including natural gas pipelines and energy marketing and trading companies in proceedings before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.
