Jerry Beane and Kay Lynn Brumbaugh Join Andrews Kurth

November 4, 2003

DALLAS -- Andrews Kurth announces today that Jerry L. Beane and Kay Lynn Brumbaugh join the firm as partners in the Dallas office. With a combined 45 plus years of experience, both attorneys have outstanding reputations in the legal community. "These two renowned Dallas attorneys bring incredible experience and capability to Andrews Kurth and to our office," says Charlie Marshall, managing partner of the Dallas office.

Beane and Brumbaugh's experience in antitrust matters is multi-faceted including litigation, counseling, mergers and acquisitions, investigations and inquiries by the Department of Justice Antitrust Division, Federal Trade Commission and state attorneys general. Both attorneys also have sophisticated commercial litigation practices which include class actions and other complex matters.

"We share the same values and work ethic of this firm," says Beane. "Andrews Kurth is a dynamic law firm which places a priority on client service and we look forward to the new opportunities and challenges at the firm." Beane is routinely listed in local, regional and national publications "Best Lawyers in..." the antitrust practice area and was recently honored as a Texas "SuperLawyer" in Texas Monthly. Beane is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and he received his B.A. and J.D. from Baylor University where he served as Editor in Chief of the Baylor Law Review.

Brumbaugh has been featured in the "Best Lawyers in Dallas Under 40" list by D Magazine and was also chosen as a Texas "SuperLawyer." She received her B.B.A. from the University of Texas and her J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law. Brumbaugh also served as a judicial clerk to the Hon. Sam B. Hall, Jr., U.S. District Judge for the Eastern District of Texas. "We look forward to continuing to serve our clients and be a part of the growing antitrust practice at Andrews Kurth," says Brumbaugh.

Beane and Brumbaugh join the firm from Strasburger & Price, LLP. Beane served as chair of Strasburger's business and commercial litigation practice prior to his departure. Brumbaugh was chair of Strasburger's antitrust practice before arriving at Andrews Kurth.

Andrews Kurth LLP, founded in 1902, has more than 400 lawyers and eight offices in Austin, Dallas, Houston, London, Los Angeles, New York, The Woodlands and Washington, DC. The firm has an international client base and has experience in most industries and areas of law.
