Andrews Kurth Launches Start-Up Organization Package

January 28, 2010

Firm to provide $5K fixed-fee package to help entrepreneurs launch new start-ups

(Austin, TX)—Andrews Kurth, a leading law firm for entrepreneurs and emerging growth companies, announced today the launch of a new fixed-fee, start-up organization package.

In an effort to create cost certainty and streamline the process associated with launching a new company, Andrews Kurth is offering clients a comprehensive start-up organization package for the formation of a new corporation. The package is provided for a fixed fee of $5,000 and details can be found here.

This start-up organization package consists of documents and services in the following areas:

- Incorporation, Organization and Qualification
- Capitalization
- Employment and Consulting
- Intellectual Property
- Consultations on venture capital term sheets, employment matters, employee benefits and IP

“With all the unknowns associated with launching a start-up company, we wanted to provide a no-nonsense way for entrepreneurs to get a new company launched,” stated Alan Bickerstaff, partner in the firm’s Technology & Emerging Companies practice group. “The package we have designed includes everything needed to form a start-up, including a stock option plan, along with additional counseling on venture capital term sheets, employment matters, employee benefits and IP.”

Attorneys in the Technology and Emerging Companies Group of Andrews Kurth have advised hundreds of entrepreneurs on the formation of new companies, capital structures, financing transactions and intellectual property matters, and have provided counseling on day-to-day legal issues that arise in start-up companies.
