Dallas is a city defined by a history of trade and commerce, high finance, entrepreneurship and corporate innovation. It is headquarters to more than 20 Fortune 500 companies, boasts one of the nation's most innovative and successful technology corridors, and is renowned for its investment in emerging companies.

The diverse team of attorneys in Andrews Kurth's Dallas office serves a unique combination of the traditional businesses and emerging companies that make up this thriving city. We offer representation in all aspects of civil law, including traditional corporate, securities and M&A, real estate, banking and finance, private equity and venture capital, asset securitization, commercial bankruptcy, labor and employment, and intellectual property and technology transactions. We also vigorously protect and defend our clients in corporate compliance, antitrust, intellectual property, and commercial litigation matters.

Our Dallas lawyers are frequently recognized among the best in their field by leading industry publications, including U.S. News and World Report/Best Lawyers, Chambers & Partners USA, D Magazine, Texas Monthly and others.

The Dallas office was opened in 1982 and is home to nearly 80 attorneys.
