Dr. Wang’s practice focuses on all aspects of intellectual property law, including patent prosecution, inter partes review, post grant review, interference practice, counseling and opinions regarding patentability, patent invalidity, freedom-to-operate, infringement, design around and diligence work in connection with mergers and acquisitions in the biotechnology industry, having been involved in nearly 100 deals. She also handles patent interferences, patent infringement and other litigation matters, 337 actions at the International Trade Commission, licensing negotiations, technology and academic agreements, acquisition of capital for entrepreneurs, start-ups and institutions. Her experience is in the fields of pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, chemical/organic chemistry and medical devices.

Dr. Wang’s work includes vast experience in drafting and prosecuting thousands of patent applications. For three consecutive years, Dr. Wang has been named among the world’s leading patent practitioners in IAM Patent 1000, the top worldwide guide to leading patent professionals and firms. She has prosecuted thousands of patents worldwide, and obtained in excess 150 of issued patents worldwide for her clients in the past two years. Dr. Wang has extensive experience working with international companies, especially negotiating and handling business between the United States and China.

She was the recipient of the Eliot Stellar Award from the Philadelphia Chapter, Society for Neuroscience, and the Lapides Award given by the American Urological Society. Dr. Wang has published numerous research articles in peer-reviewed scientific journals.

INSIGHTS

- The Federal Circuit Clarifies the Steps in the Biosimilars Dance (July 24, 2015)
- The Presumption of Validity Triumphs over a Good-Faith Belief of Invalidity (May 28, 2015)
- Post Exclusivity Issues For Biologics (December 22, 2014)
- The Myriad Decision in the U.S. Supreme Court IP and Technology Developments - Special Edition, BIO Conference (July 10, 2012)
Is an Isolated DNA Patentable? IP and Technology Developments - October 2011 (October 25, 2011)

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

- Profiled as one of the leading Patents: Licensing (2017) and Patents: Prosecution (2017) lawyers in the United States, The US Legal 500

Ping Wang, M.D.

BRIEFINGS, SEMINARS & SPEECHES

AFFILIATIONS

- American Bar Association
- American Intellectual Property Law Association
- American Health Law Association
- American International Law Association
- Member, American Intellectual Property Law Association, Interference Committee, Biotechnology Committee, and Licensing Committee
- United States Patent and Trademark Office, Biotechnology, Chemical, and Pharmaceutical Partnership
- Society for Neuroscience
- International Brain Research Organization

NEWS

- Andrews Kurth Highly Ranked in IAM Patent 1000 2016 (June 6, 2016)
- Andrews Kurth Files Supreme Court Amicus Brief on Behalf of JYANT Technologies, Inc. (April 26, 2016)
- Jeff Dodd, Gary Bush and Ping Wang Named Among the World's Leading Patent Practitioners (June 28, 2012)